

Jerome Tennille, Director of Social Impact & ESG at The Uplift Agency.

As Director of Social Impact & ESG, Jerome is responsible for leading Uplift's corporate clients through social impact and ESG strategy design and implementation to address their unique challenges while identifying opportunities. He's also responsible for partnership cultivation, ESG content creation and external outreach. Prior to joining Uplift, he led Marriott International's global volunteer program on their social impact team where he managed national partnerships and designed the strategies, guidelines and toolkits that empowered and equipped associates to serve their communities across the globe. He has over a decade of social impact experience and is the co-author and co-editor of the book Transforming Disruption to Impact: Rethinking Volunteer Engagement for a Rapidly Changing World. Jerome is also a veteran of the United States Navy.